Her Poem, Accepted by The King, Has Made Her a Literary Lion

LADY FLORENCE DIXIE.

London, April 1—Lady Florence Dixie is the latest literary lion in London, owing to the recent acceptance of her poem, "The Massacre of the Innocents," by King Edward.

The poem was directed against the cruelty of sea-gull shooting, and created a sensation, being bitterly denounced by those who indulged in the sport, but making many friends for the fair author. That it made a profound impression on the King is shown by his acceptance of the poem. A keen champion of woman's rights, Lady Dixie, who is the seventh daughter of the Marquis of Queensbury, and the wife of Sir Alexander Dixie, surprised her friends and relatives during the Boer war of 1881 by putting her favorite theory into practice and acting as war correspondent for the Morning Post. Her work attracted wide attention at that time.

Although her denunciation of sea-gull shooting might lead one to believe that she had little sympathy with sport, she nevertheless is an ardent sportswoman. She is fond of horse-back riding, and relishes a dash across the country.

She is envied by many Beautiful Girls of Paris

Paris, April 1—Jeanne Girard is today envied by almost three thousand beautiful working girls of Paris because she was chosen from among their number to place a wreath upon the bust of Victor Hugo in front of the house in the Place des Vosges, where the author lived.

Mlle. Girard is a composer, twenty-two years old, beautiful and graceful. From three thousand working girls of all trades forty-three were chosen for candidates, and Mlle. Girard was selected from the forty-three as the most popular.

The fête terminated with the handing over to the city of Paris of the Victor Hugo house, which will serve as a museum.

A Nearly Fatal Runaway

Started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill., which defied doctors and all remedies for four years. Their Bucklin's Arnica Salve cured him. Just as good for Boils, Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Corns, Scalds, Skin Eruptions, and Piles. C. B. Harper & Co.'s drug store.

A Doctor's Bad Plight.

"Two years ago, as a result of a severe cold, I lost my voice," writes Dr. M. L. Scarborough, of Hebron, O. "Then began an obstinate cough. Every remedy known to me as a practicing physician for 35 years, failed, and I daily grew worse. Being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, I found quick relief, and for but two days have felt better than for two years." Positive guarantee for Throat and Lung troubles by C. B. Harper & Co.

Paris' Idol a Count's Bride

Mile. D'Alencon.

Paris, March 29.—All Paris is discussing the wedding of Mile. Emilienne d'Alencon, whose ravishingly beautiful figure and penchant for having horse, photographed has made her famous, and the Count Jan de Horvath, of Budapest.

The wedding took place in the Madeleine and the occasion seemed rather a public fête than that of a solemn ceremony. The theatrical world of Paris was in attendance, as well as a small army of young gallants, who worshipped at Mile. d'Alencon's shrine at the Folies Bergere and Maxim's.

The Great Dismal Swamp

Of Virginia is a breeding ground of Malaria germs. So is low, wet or marshy ground everywhere. These germs cause weakness, chills and fever, aches in the bones and muscles, and may induce dangerous maladies. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malarial troubles. They will surely prevent typhoid. "We tried many remedies for Malaria and Stomach and Liver troubles," writes John Charleston, of Byersville, O., "but never found anything as good as Electric Bitters." Try them. Guarantee satisfaction. C. B. Harper & Co.

Princess Named The New Ship.

Princess of Wales.

London, March 29.—The Princess of Wales, accompanied by the Prince, launched the battleship Prince of Wales at Chatham. The new ship is of 1,000 tons, and is designed for a maximum speed of 19 knots. Her heaviest gun will be a 12-inch one, weighing 6 tons.
